I (we), the undersigned, know that inline skating is a sport carrying risk of personal injury. I understand that there are obstacles or hazards, surface and environmental conditions, natural and man-made risks, which, in combination with my actions, can cause me injury or death. I agree that, as a club member, I understand and accept these risks, conditions and hazards. I also agree that I alone am responsible for my safety while I participate in or train for club or organized events. I hereby release Northern Inline Skaters, its sponsors, organizers, associated entities and any or all persons connected with Northern Inline Skaters from all liability for injury or damages.
